VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1893.

NO. 69

LIBERTY.

—It being Russell county's year to furnish candidates for the Legislature, the republicans met in convention at Jamestown, on Monday, the 16th, and nominated Mr. L. Dunbar as their candidate in the two counties. The democrats met the next day at the same place and nominated Mr. John Coffey for the same position, but it is stated from good authority that Mr. Coffey declined. The race, so far, is now between Mr. Dunbar and Mr. Tyler Jasper, the prohibition candidate.

—The Casey county court of claims met here on Monday, the 23d, and a good sized crowd from all over the county was in attendance. The candidates were busy making acquaintances with and vowing to the dear people. In the afternoon Hon. W. H. Miller, of Stanford, democratic candidate for the State Senate, addressed a large audience in the court-house, laying his own claims and the claims of his party before the people. While commending the merits of the democratic party he made no particular vicious assault on the opposite party. He was followed by Mr. Dunbar in a short but well delivered address who told why his party and the voters generally should support him. As he was running for a different office and Mr. Lay was absent, he came in no special conflict with Mr. Miller with this exception. Mr. Miller in his speech advised the republicans to stay at home on the day of the election and Mr. Dunbar urged them to go to the polls and cast their votes. It was also regular meeting day of the Casey County Medical Association. It held its session in the county court room and we understand from Drs. James Wesley, O. H. McRoberts and others that very interesting discussions took place, the principal subject being diphtheria. There were about 12 physicians in attendance. Among the eminent members of the profession from surrounding counties we noted the distinguished Dr. Brown, of Hustonville, Dr. J. G. Carpenter, of Stanford, Dr. Cowan, of Danville, and Dr. Patrick Humphrey, of Hustonville.

HUBBLE.

—Corn seems to be selling slow at 22 shucked in the field.
—More wheat has been shown here this fall than has been for many years.
—Joe Pollard, of Crab Orchard, has moved to the George Eubanks property.
—Bros. Arnold and Helm are conducting an interesting meeting here this week.
—S. Dunbar is having his timothy hay baled and stored in his barn for better prices.
—Fleecie Robinson started Tuesday for his usual home for the winter at Columbus, Ga.
—A. L. Spoonamore after digging some 40 feet in his yard for water, has abandoned the idea of finding it and is making a cistern.
—Uncle Fred Yeakey's daughter, of Bellflower, Ill., is visiting relatives here. Two of Tom Smith's brothers are visiting him from Pulaski.
—Robert Earls has sold his corn shucked in the field for $2. Wm. Adams bought some steers, weighing about 1,000 pounds, of Frank Rigney at 3c.
—S. E. Owsley has been selling his clover seed at $5. R. S. Windle is up from Cumberland county with 100 cattle. J. W. Bright has sold his timothy hay at $10 per ton.
—Ben Owsley, Jr., who left home for Indianapolis some weeks back, like all the prodigals, has asked his father to send him money to return on. Prof. J. E. Robinson, now of Harrodsburg, was at home last Saturday and Sunday.
—B. W. Givens and Jas. Engleman killed a snow white squirrel some days ago. R. L. Hubble and J. C. Eubanks are in the mountains trading brood mares to mules. J. W. Bright and Beecher Adams caught a jumper in Dix river a few days ago 19 inches long. Mr. B. W. Givens is taking in the World's Fair this week. Dr. Cox, of Maxville, was here last week trying to get a location. He made many friends while here and all wish he could have succeeded in getting a stopping place.

Nashville, Tenn., March 6, 1893. —The Stockton Medicine Co., Nashville, Tenn. Gentlemen: It gives me exceeding pleasure to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it something wonderful in the way of medicine. My old servant, Albert, who is 72 years old, was very sick with Pneumonia, complicated with Heart Trouble and Dropsy. I called in my family physician and gave him every attention, but the doctor finally told me there was no hope and the only thing that could be done was to make him comfortable until the end. At this point I decided to give him Stockton's Antiseptic, as it seemed to be performing almost miracles for others. It was given in regular doses every three hours and the fever began to decrease from the first dose and a decided improvement was noticed the first day. In three days he was sitting up and in a week he was back at his work as usual and is regaining his strength very fast. I conscientiously believe it saved the old man's life. Respectfully yours,
FRANK SHARIT.

ROWLAND.

—The prospect of an early vote on the repeal of the Sherman bill is quite refreshing, and it is to be hoped that every demagogue who sought to gain individual favor by opposing the repeal, will be retired from office as soon as possible.
—Since the Ferris Wheel is to remain at Chicago after the Fair is over, it is suggested that our legislature lease the Kentucky building for a livery stable and let the male commissioners act as proprietors, in order to get back part of that extravagant and useless appropriation.
—Business of all kinds is looking upward at this place. Most of the houses which were vacated by the removal of the R. R. Division, are occupied by new comers; quite a number of men are at work in the repair shops and our merchants are busy. It is thought that we will get the full division back again before spring, as the long runs now being made exhaust the employees to such an extent that they can not control the trains and expensive and fatal wrecks are the results.
—The sudden death of J. A. Demaree, Grand Reporter of Knights of Honor, will be deeply felt not only by the 135,000 members now belonging to that order, but by thousands of people who have received the benefit of nearly $15,000,000 paid to widows and orphans on death claims. Being the founder of that order, which is over 20 years old, he should be regarded as one of the greatest public benefactors that ever lived. He deserves more praise than the proudest orator in the halls of Congress or the greatest general that ever wielded a sword.
—Mrs. S. W. Ferris was the guest of her mother Mrs. Tom Parsons, this week. Miss Jennie Seigel is visiting friends in Louisville. W. L. Watts and wife, of Louisville, were visiting J. W. Carrier this week. F. L. Clifford, train dispatcher from Bluefield, W. Va., is here attending court. Mr. C. H. Brown has just returned from the World's Fair looking as fresh as a newly-blown rose, and he says it is the biggest thing on wheels. Fox Dudderar, of Louisville, made a running call a few days since. Dr. J. A. Amos, of Buckeye, was here Monday. Mrs. P. M. Ward, of Knoxville, is visiting Mrs. Charles Keisling and is adjusting a claim with Capt. J. H. Yundt, agent for the Standard Accident Co. on account of the death of her husband.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Jeff Arnold, who was shot in the head about 10 days ago on Line Creek, died Sunday.
—Mr. G. W. Baker, candidate for representative, is out from London shaking hands and looking very hopeful.
—A little child of John Owens, who lives in the southern part of this county, was killed Wednesday by the section of a log rolling over its body.
—G. W. Gentry, Jr., was injured Monday by a large stack of lumber falling on him. He saw the lumber start to fall and jumped or he would have been instantly killed.
—A party left for the World's Fair last week. It consisted of Messrs. James Maret, J. J. Brown, M. J. Miller, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Miller. No. 323 Michigan Ave., is Mt. Vernon headquarters at the Fair.
—A mad dog was perceived by Mr. R. L. Stark early Monday morning. A bombardment of several minutes was kept up until the small canine was killed. Mr. Willis Adams killed one recently as also did Mr. William Fields. It is thought that a number of hogs and dogs have been bitten so be on your guard.
—Livingston is certainly growing. A handsome new school-house will soon be an ornament to the village. Mr. George Cook, a wide-awake merchant of the place, is a trustee and takes an active interest in hastening the work. Mr. John Walton is building a new residence. Mr. Dee Bryant has just completed one and Mrs. Champ Mullins has one nearly finished. Rents are good and houses are in demand. Mr. W. R. Dillion has bought the Samsbrook saw mill and a residence with a large tract of land for $3,500. Mr. Jack Turner, the agent, and his charming bride are located here.
—Mr. C. W. Seitz has rented his farm on Skaggs creek and moved his family to Jeffersonstown, near Louisville. Misses Bertie Martin and Sallie Cook visited friends here last week. Mrs. D. C. Poynter has returned from a visit to Garrard county. Mrs. M. C. Miller and Miss Nannie Kennedy are visiting in Louisville. Miss Mattie Williams is at the Fair. Miss Ruth Workman, of Livingston, was with friends here this week. Mr. Harrison Baker has moved to town. Mr. M. C. Sowder, wife and Miss Mary returned from Missouri Wednesday. Mrs. G. W. McClure and daughters, Misses Lena and Bessie, attended the wedding at Williamsburg Wednesday. Judge McClure has returned from the Cherokee strip and reports that his son, Tom, and Mr. Bennett Joplin have secured splendid farms. Mr. W. T. Humphrey, a prominent merchant of Liberty, was here on business last week. Mr. W. J. Newcomb is acting agent and Maurice Brown night operator.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—The brick from the old corner hotel were sold to Mr. John Buchanan for $25.
—The city creditors of D. G. Slaughter are having his goods sold at cost. A large assortment of goods are going at nearly nothing.
—Holdam & James are building a house in their yard to retail whisky in as their license requires them to sell it where they live.
—George Holmes bought of Mr. Turner, of Middleboro, the 50 acres of land formerly belonging to the Middleton farm, for $2,500.
—A Teachers' Convention will be held here on Saturday, Nov. 4, which promises to be entertaining and to which all are invited. It will be held at our college.
—On the 1st of November W. R. Dillion moves his large saw mill to Livingston, where he has purchased ground, and will in the future conduct his business at that place.
—Miss Lottie Dillion has returned from the World's Fair. J. B. Gilkerson returned from the same place this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Holdam are in the Windy City taking in the big Fair.
—Mrs. Emma Farris has moved to her residence on Lower Main, recently vacated by J. R. Bailey, who has moved his family to his mother's farm, in Mercer county, where he will try farming next year.
—Those who attended the sale of the late Tom Hill, at Maywood, are loud in their praises of the kind treatment received and no one left hungry or thirsty for tables were spread and all present were invited to eat, drink and be merry. Things brought reasonable prices.
—Mrs. Mary Morgan's little baby girl died Saturday after a severe illness that reduced it to a mere skeleton. A large crowd of friends assembled at Mrs. Gormley's to witness the funeral and burial. Rev. Ragan, of the Preachersville Methodist church, delivered the sermon and then it was buried in the yard to remain until the remains of the twin brother can be brought from Tollsboro, Ky., when they will be buried in the cemetery here. In less than a year the parents have been called to mourn the death of two bright twin babies, but they have the blessed assurance that little Graham and Margaret are in hands that know how to care for them, which is an assurance they probably could not have had if they had lived to manhood's estate. Two little faces will greet them at the pearly gates, if life is well spent and in an eternity they will never more be separated.
—The pupils in the high school whose grade in deportment, class standing and attendance was of sufficient average to place them on the roll of honor for the first month, are as follows:
Grade A.—A. C. Lunceford, Scott Anderson, Joseph Newland, Bessie Magee, William White, Alice Moore, George DeBorde, Harry Magee and Lizzie Benzley.
Grade B.—Bessie Carson, Henry Bastin, David Holman and Jessie Stevens.
Grade C.—Lockie Dillion, Kate Slaughter, Ada McWhorter, Pennington Moore, Joe Payne, George Brounagh, Annie Brounagh and Andrew Dillion.
Grade E.—Mattie Benzley, Capitola Slaughter, Ida Holdman, Annie May Stephens, James Adams, Sallie Dillion and Berta James.
Grade F.—Cathie Brounagh, Ollie Baker, Hill Buchanan, John Chadwick and Foley.
Grade G.—Lena Napier, John Enpher and Jeanie Laseley.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—There will be about 20 republican candidates for sheriff of Laurel county next term.
—Lawyers W. L. Brown and A. L. Reid left Wednesday to attend circuit court at Manchester.
—For the first time the medical board of pension examiners are democrats. Drs. Caldwell, Pennington and Givens having taken charge Wednesday.
—There is very little talk about the race for the Legislature in this county, but if they do what they say they will, George Baker will get a good many republican votes.
—Thos. Tharp, who was taken to the penitentiary by Sheriff Moran, last Tuesday, went all the way there in a red undershirt and a pair of red drawers, hat and pair of shoes, having sold his suit of clothes for money to enjoy himself with when he gets there.
—Conductor Charles Turner and Engineer Lum Wright were here Tuesday and gave bond in $1,000 each for their appearance at the February term of the Laurel circuit court. They were indicted at this court for murder, having been the cause of the wreck at Hazel Patch in which two men were killed.
—The ballot to be voted in Louisville next Tuesday week is 30x30 inches, or 6.24 square feet.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Col. L. F. Hubble, as trustee, sold the Record-Homestead plant Wednesday at public outcry. Squire W. H. Kinnaid became the purchaser at $1,300. The paper will continue to be published under the present management.
—Mr. J. W. Bolan, of Point Barnside, and Miss Lizzie Walker, were married at the residence of Mr. George Denny, Sr., Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. They left after the ceremony, via Danville, for his home, where a reception was tendered them.
—A temperance lecturer held forth at the court-house Monday afternoon to a rather small audience. The Keeley cure beats all the temperance lectures and "Father, dear father, come home with me now" literature that was ever published.
—A colored man named Lewis Leavel was in the police court Monday charged with carrying a pistol. He was found guilty and fined $35 and sent to jail for 10 days. The same day Jim Logan and Alex Leavel were pulled for running their horses on the streets and fined $5 each.
—The three democratic candidates for police judge, Messrs. Hemphill, Brown and Best, decided to leave it to a committee as to which should make the race and it was decided in favor of the last named gentleman. "Uncle Dave," as he is familiarly called, will make it pretty hot for the other candidates.
—Mr. Sam Joseph was in town this week. Mr. Jas. R. Marrs was here this week closing up the business of the Record-Homestead. Mrs. Mary Anderson has returned from a ten-days' visit to the World's Fair. Miss Eliza Lusk accompanied the Bolan-Walker bridal party to Point Barnside. Messrs. W. S. Miller and R. E. Hughes are visiting Mrs. John W. Miller. Miss Allie Walker, of Kirksville, is the guest of Miss Sue Doty.
—Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, in lower Garrard, Mr. Clayton Arnold was married to Miss Georgie Moore. Mr. Arnold is a prosperous young farmer, while his bride is one of Garrard's most beautiful and lovely young ladies. The attendants were Mamie Curvey and Adie Arnold, Messrs. Fisher Gaines and Wilson Moore. The wedding march was played by Miss Altie Marksberry. The happy young couple will go to housekeeping at once at the old Grand farm near the Fork church.
—Monday afternoon Ed Doty and Charley White had a difficulty in the alley back of Walker & Norris' livery stable in which the former shot and instantly killed the latter. Reports as to the cause of the trouble are conflicting, but the facts will appear at the examining trial which will be held before Judge Robinson this, Thursday morning. White was the oldest son of Capt. and Mrs. F. J. White and they have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. He was buried in the Lancaster cemetery Tuesday afternoon after appropriate services conducted by Rev. J. R. Terry.
A message says that the case was continued till to-day and that the probability is that it will be dismissed.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Wanted, a first-class shoemaker.
—We congratulate Mr. L. F. Steele on the arrival of a son and heir.
—Henry Camnitz is adorning the already pretty home of W. D. Weatherford with his hand of art.
—A rousing revival among the colored population resulted in 50 additions to the Christian church.
—Quite a party of girls and boys went to Casey Saturday hunting chestnuts. Only the small boys found the chestnuts.
—The protracted meeting conducted by Rev. G. W. Yancy at the Christian church closed Friday evening with only three additions.
—Mr. Bert McKinley's little niece of Lexington was run over at that place by an electric car, breaking her arm and necessitating amputation.
—A very quiet wedding occurred at Mr. Henry Nalls' on Friday evening. The contracting parties were Mr. John Bolling, of Parkville, and Miss Nannie Evans, of Junction City. Rev. G. W. Yancy officiated.
—Junius Reid, a thrifty young business man of this place, is now on the road in the interest of the Hustonville Mill Co. Mr. Riker VanArsdale, of Harrodsburg, nephew of Mr. C. C. VanArsdale, is located here in behalf of the same Co.
—Harry Hocker and his friend, Lucien Montgomery, of Florida, spent Sunday with relatives. Mrs. W. P. Swope, of Owenton, returned Wednesday, greatly improved in health after a stay of two months. Dr. Edward Alcorn left Monday for Chicago. His daughters, Misses Lucy and Mattie, who are at Oxford, joined him at Cincinnati. Mr. Jas. W. Allen took a car-load of cattle to Cincinnati Tuesday. From thence he will go to Chicago to see the great Fair. Mr. L. B. Adams, of Longview, Ala., joined his wife and Miss Bettie Logan here Wednesday, when they left for Chicago.
